Visiting the Library's website: SFPL Website front page - Text size and Log in

- Language Selection: A menu at the top left with options for English, Español, and 中文.
- Text Size Control: A 'Contrast Options' panel on the left side, featuring buttons for 'Dark', 'Light', and 'High' contrast, and '+' and '-' buttons for text size, with a 'Reset to Default' button below.
- Log In / My SFPL: A dropdown menu at the top right, with the 'Log In / My SFPL' text and a green 'Log In / Register' button highlighted.

The website content includes a navigation bar with 'Search & Learn' and 'Events & Exhibits', a search bar, and a 'Library Locations & Hours' link. Below the navigation are three featured articles:

- CELEBRATE BLACK HISTORY & CULTURE MORE THAN A MONTH: Enjoy events, programs and reading lists that explore and honor Black history, culture and heritage.
- WORK IT We're Here to Get You There: Start a new career, earn a degree, grow your small business and build your literacy skills.
- AUTHOR TALK Local and National Authors Take Center Stage: We host local and national writers both in-person and virtually. See who's coming next....

The bottom right corner features the COMMUNITY LIVING CAMPAIGN logo, which consists of a blue house icon with a red heart inside and a green sprout growing from the top.
